

The Storm Chaser Workshop!

Hosted by Emergency Management

April 22, 1:00 - 4:00pm

BE BETTER PREPARED.®

Kyle Smith - Programme Assistant, Wellington County Museum and Archives. Kyle travels around the county sharing his extensive knowledge of local history with school children and seniors. He also organizes events such as the Museum's annual Remembrance Ceremony and Harvest Home Festival.

Bailey Allard – Local Storm Chaser at StormViewLIVE. Bailey attended the University of Waterloo, Conestoga College and will be continuing her studies at Mississippi State, focusing on Meteorology. She began chasing storms in 2005 and began streaming in 2014. Most of her chases are focused in Ontario, but she can also be found state side looking for photogenic twisters.

Geoff Coulson - has been a meteorologist with Environment Canada for over 33 years. During his career he has been involved with weather forecasting, training, software development and outreach activities. For the last 13 years, Geoff has been a Warning Preparedness Meteorologist providing weather information to all levels of government, the media and the private sector.

Visit “The Storm Chaser” Bailey Allard’s Breathtaking Photograph Collection, Exhibit is on display from January 14 - May 7 at the Wellington County Museum and Archives.

Wellington County Museum and Archives located between Fergus and Elora

T 519.837.2600 x3323

T 519.837.2600 x 3324

ALTERNATE FORMATS AVAILABLE UPON REQUEST